

How to Get Your Z-Visa

1. AUTHENTICATION (2-3 weeks)

Your documents must be authenticated by the Chinese consulate in your home country.

*Teaching Nomad can do this entire process for you***

- You must have a U.S. passport
- It doesn't matter where your documents were issued
- Just mail us your original documents & you're done!

2. SEND SCANS TO YOUR SCHOOL

1. Send your school scans of every page of each document that you had authenticated

2. Specify which consulate you'll use for your visa when you e-mail the scans (you cannot change this later)

3. WORK PERMIT APPLICATION

(4-6 weeks)

1. Your school will use the scans to apply for your work permit

4. E-APPROVAL LETTER

1. Your school will send you an e-approval letter that will only be good at the consulate you specified

5. APPLY FOR Z-VISA

(1 week)

1. Take your passport, a photo & the approval letter to the consulate you specified (or use an agent)
2. You'll receive a single entry Z-visa
3. You must enter China within 30 days of this
